

Leasing out of Railway land

†2717. SHRI SHATRUGHAN SINHA: Will the Minister of RAILWAYS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any plan to lease out railway land which is not being used by them, to other Government agencies for a long term;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether any land has been selected under this scheme around railway stations situated in Bihar in its first phase; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS (SHRI R. VELU): (a) No, Sir. Railways have however a policy, to consider the request if any for long lease of land, if separable, to State Government/Public sector undertakings on payment of lease charges equal to 99% of current market value of land plus Rupees 1000/- per annum as nominal charges, for 35 years with a provision for a renewal for another 35 years on payment of nominal charges to be decided at that time.

(b) to (d) Do not arise.
